THE HON'BLE Ms. JUSTICE G. ROHINI

WRIT PETITION NO.11592 OF 2007

ORDER :

This writ petition is filed seeking a declaration that the order dated 30-4-2007 passed by the 2nd respondent – The Tahsildar (Mandal Revenue Officer), Chimakurthy, Chimakurthy Mandal, Prakasam District under which the distribution of kerosene was directed to be attached to the concerned ration shop dealers as arbitrary and illegal.

The petitioner, who is a licensed hawker for sale of kerosene contends that since the licence in her favour is subsisting, the respondents are not justified in directing distribution of kerosene through the ration shop dealers.

This Court while directing Notice before admission, by order dated 14-6-2007 ordered that the petitioner shall be permitted to distribute kerosene provided the licence in her favour is subsisting as on that date.

When the matter is taken up today for consideration, the learned Counsel for the petitioner states that pursuant to the interim order the petitioner has been permitted to distribute the kerosene which fact itself shows that the licence in her favour is subsisting.

The learned Government Pleader for Civil Supplies appearing for the respondents, under instructions, states that though a show-cause notice dated 6-10-2006 was issued calling upon the petitioner to show-cause as to why her licence should not be cancelled and the petitioner has also submitted her explanation on 9-10-2006, no final order has been passed by the licensing authority and that the licence in favour of the petitioner is subsisting as on today.

In the circumstances, the impugned order dated 30-4-2007 is hereby set aside leaving it open to the respondents to proceed with the enquiry initiated against the petitioner and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law.

Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
